A car load of peaches were shipped from this station Tuesday morning. This makes six car-loads that have been shipped the past week. This will probably end the peach shipping for this season. As the last of the crop is about exhausted.

James F. Fulbright came in Tuesday noon from a trip up in Cape county, where he has been delivering some speeches, in the interest of the candidacy of Thomas F. Lane, Democratic candidate for state senator, from this district.

The fishing party composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ponder, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carter, all of Cape Girardeau, Mo. returned yesterday evening from a 10 days camping at Tunnel Bluff on Current river about 30 miles above here. They had a fine cutting out caught over 100 nice fish most of which were bass and salmon. On their way back to town they came upon a party of fishermen composed of W. W. Johnson, Judge Sheppard, J. U. Swain, D. B. Young, A. L. Sheppard, and others who were in hard luck and out of provisions. Mr. Ponder gave them about 30 pounds of fish to last them until they could get supplies from town. This was certainly the spirit of the True Fisherman.

The Candidates.

JAMES OSCAR GAYLE, who resides in Harris township, and is generally known as Squire Oscar Gayle, is a native of Gibson county, Indiana, but for the last 22 years has been a resident of this county, settling where he now lives in June, 1886. He is also a candidate for the position of Eastern district judge of the County Court. He is a farmer, but has worked some in former years at railroad. He is a good business man, and has a good education. He is one of the best known and liked men in the county, one of the attestations of this statement being that for the last 18 years he has been a justice of the peace in Harris township, and has the friendship and good will of all his neighbors and friends. He is a progressive and successful farmer, an upright and honorable man in all his dealings. His ability is of an order that fits him in every way for making a good judge, having practical knowledge of the work of the office he seeks and intention that will give him a clear grasp of the matters affecting the interest of the people of the county as administered upon by the county court. He has many friends throughout the county and if chosen to fill the place he seeks will give a satisfactory account of his stewardship. He is married, has a family and is a member of the Baptist church.

MAURICE McCauley, of this township, who lives on the old Towles farm about four miles south of town, and which place he now owns, is a candidate for Associate Judge of the Eastern District—member of the County court. Mr. McCauley has never held public office, nor been a candidate before, but is one of the best known farmers and business men in the county. He is an energetic, pushing farmer and when he takes hold of a proposition it has to go if there is any "go" in it at all. Some years ago he was engaged in business in this city, conducting a general store in the rooms now occupied by the Borth Mercantile Co. Retiring from business, and being raised on a farm, he returned to his first love and has made a success of it. He is a leading member of the Mutual Telephone Co., and has always been active in the management of its affairs, as member of the board of directors of the company. He takes great interest in developing the resources of the county and is a worker in every cause he espouses. As a county judge he will be efficient, careful and pay close attention to the business of the people. He is a native of this county, is married, has a family, is an excellent citizen and has fine executive ability, which would make him a competent member of the county court.

JAMES G. MERRELL, of Doniphan, is also a candidate for the position of sheriff of the county, subject to the approval of the Democratic voters at the primary election next Tuesday. Mr. Merrell is a native of Ripley county, is married and has a family. He is the present assessor of the county, and has made good in that position, as the county now has the best tax books they have ever had, there has been some very good assessors elected heretofore in this county. Besides, Mr. Merrell has had experience in the work of the sheriff's office for while his father was sheriff Jim was a deputy and became familiar with the work of the office. Should he be chosen as the candidate, and elected, our people will know that the office of the county, in so far they relate to the sheriff will be not only carefully discharged but expeditiously disposed of. When not engaged in his assessment work, he is employed by the International Harvester Co., and the J. I. Case Co. in selling farm machinery, he being the general selling agent for most of the counties of Southeast Missouri. He is an active Democrat and always ready to help along in the good cause. He is a lodge member and takes interest in this line of the brotherhood of man.

JOHN H. ROBINSON, who is a candidate for re-nomination and election to the office he now holds—sheriff of the county, is a native of Randolph county, Arkansas, our neighbor to the south, though for last 13 years he has been a citizen of Ripley county, and in that time has been engaged in farming or merchandising. As sheriff during his first term he has discharged the duties of the office so acceptably that no contentious complaint has been made against him nor fault found with his official acts. Mr. Robinson is a good friend and neighbor and carries the same kindly feeling into his official duties that he does in his other works in life. He is a married man and has a family. Under the new or amended law, the sheriff's office is now a four year term, instead of two years as heretofore and he asks the people of the county to give him another term believing that, as he has served an apprenticeship of two years, and creditably and acceptably done the work of the office, that he is now better able to look after the people's interests than during the first term, as he has the hang of it now and can render better service, if such can be.

JAMES F. FULBRIGHT, is the present Prosecuting Attorney of the county and is a candidate for re-nomination and election, without opposition in his own party. Mr. Fulbright is a native of Cape county but has been a resident of this county for a number of years. He is married and has a family. As a lawyer he ranks among the first at the local bar and is recognized as a bright young man by those who know him among the attorneys of this section of the state. As prosecuting attorney he has fulfilled the duties of the position faithfully and has succeeded in his cases with generally better results than almost any other prosecutor the county has ever had. He is a speaker of great power and is recognized as the leading orator of this section. He has few, if any, equals in the southeast part of the state in speech making, being clear, brilliant and convincing in his arguments. In his selection our people are assured of the same care and attention to their interests and the interests of the state that have heretofore characterized his work in the office and recognizing this fact contemplate with confidence the certainty of his continuation in the position he now holds.

JOHN A. BROOKS, is a candidate for re-nomination and election to the office he now holds, that of county treasurer. He has no opposition and as under the amended law the term of office is now a four years time, this fact is an indication of the feeling of the people if the county toward him. Having most of the time since he reached manhood's estate been employed in a lumber mill in charge of the machinery, his line of work had never been one that required much in the line of bookkeeping, yet since his election two years ago he has not only discharged the duties of the office efficiently but has developed into one of the best officials the county has ever had in the position he now occupies. He was born in this town, lives here, is a widower, has a family, and belongs to several of the secret societies and is a member of the Presbyterian church. Having no opponent in the primary he is assured of the nomination for a second term, and as the result of the November election in this county is already discounted our people know that the duties of the office will be discharged in a way that will be creditable to Mr. Brooks and satisfactory to them.

JAMES F. J. SPENCER, of Poyner neighborhood in Current River township is another gentleman who is seeking the position of Sheriff. Mr. Spencer is one of the nicest men to meet in the county and he is not abt hard to get acquainted with. He is a farmer by profession and is constable of his home township. He is married and has a family. In the section of the county in which he lives everybody is his friend and he desires their friendship for he is a good man, an excellent neighbor and friend. In the position of constable he has been prompt and faithful, and it is not an office in which a person, as a rule, can make and keep friends, yet Jim has done this very thing. In this nomination and election to the office of sheriff the people of the county would make no mistake as he is fully qualified in every way to discharge the duties of the office capably and satisfactorily.

STEPHEN D. LASSITER, of Ponder, is a farmer of the west side of the county who is also a candidate for the position of assessor. Mr. Lassiter is a native of Illinois, but came to this county several years ago. He had served in the same position in his native state, where they have township organization, and understands the duties of the office thoroughly. He is a very pleasant man, is married, has a family, and lives on his farm. He has been in the race for this office before and made a good record. There is no question to his ability and qualification for the place, nor, if he should be nominated and elected, that he would make an excellent official. His acquaintance is very general over the county and where ever he is known is very much liked. Like all the other candidates for this very important office he is a good Democrat, an honest man, and a most excellent citizen.

MORGAN W. COTTON, of Doniphan, is also a candidate for the nomination of Associate Judge of the county court for the Eastern district. Judge Cotton is perhaps the best known one of the candidates for this very important office, and all who have pleasure of his acquaintance are fully aware of his ability to discharge the duties of the office in a way that will be satisfactory to his constituency, should he be nominated and elected. His experience in official positions will stand him in hand in this office and the people will be assured that their interests will be closely looked after if he becomes a member of the court. He always discharged the duties of the position held by him, both county and municipal, in a capable manner and his past experience can be taken as a criterion of his future service.

GEORGE E. PONDER, whose postoffice address is Ponder, is another seeker after the office of county assessor. Mr. Ponder is a native of this county, was raised and educated here, is married and has a family and is in every respect qualified to make an assessor, if nominated and elected, who will receive the encomiums of our people for the manner in which he will discharge the duties of the place. He is a farmer and a good one, too, and everybody in his neighborhood is for him, although there are other candidates for the same position in that portion of the county. Wherever he goes he makes friends and he is well known throughout the county. In the race for this place the general impression among the people seem to be that whoever beats Mr. Ponder will be the assessor.

JAMES K. LANGFORD, of this city is a candidate for the very important position of assessor of Ripley county. Mr. Langford is an old resident of the county and knows every section of it. He has held official positions before and in every place has discharged the duties in an able and honorable way. He is known generally in every part of the county and all recognize his qualification for the place he is seeking. He is a native of Tennessee, is married, has a family and is at present one of the Justice's of the peace in this township. In the office of assessor he would do the work in a way that would be entirely satisfactory. He is a good man for the position and if the people select him at the primary they will realize that they have made a wise selection.

ARTHUR Y. MOORE, of this city, is another candidate for the position of assessor, and should he be the choice of the voters at the primary, the people will find they have made no mistake in their choice, as he is a capable, qualified young man for the office. He has had some experience in the work as he assisted the present assessor in doing the work of the office for the past year or two, and he will not have to learn the work if he is elected to the office. He is single, belongs to several of the secret societies, and by trade is a painter and paper hanger. He is a very pleasant and friendly young man and has a host of friends. He will make a first-rate official and by his selection the people will find his work a source of gratification.

KILLED AT PINE

W. B. Whitwell kills G. W. Smith, Secret Service Officer.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning a tragedy was enacted at Pine post office in the western part of the county, between W. B. Whitwell, a son of W. J. Whitwell, a merchant at Pine and G. W. Smith, who is supposed to be either a secret service officer or U. S. Marshal. The facts as near as can be gathered are as follows: Young Whitwell is said to be wanted by the government for desertion from the army some two years ago, and has been living with his parents at Pine since, and on last Wednesday officer Smith arrested Whitwell near Pine but he resisted arrest and knocked the officer down and ran away, but this morning the officer was laying for him and as he drove by the postoffice at Pine in a spring wagon on his way to Doniphan, the officer stepped out and ordered him to halt, which Whitwell refused to do and the officer fired two shots at him, whereupon Whitwell took a double barreled shot gun which he had in the wagon and fired one shot at the officer, hitting him in the stomach, the officer lying but a short time after being shot.

Immediately after the shooting Justice W. A. Brown ordered Constable W. J. Dodd to impanel a jury and he held an inquest over the body. Deputy sheriff Luther McCauley left immediately after news of the tragedy was phoned here, for Pine, in an effort to arrest Whitwell if he could be found.

Undertaker J. R. Wright sent a coffin up to Pine and will embalm the body and bring it here, and hold it until he hears from the dead officers home which is in Chicago, and whose street address is given as 239 Willin street. Undertaker Wright phoned to U. S. Marshal Morsey at St. Louis this morning but that officer said no one by the name of G. W. Smith was operating out of the St. Louis office.

Judge W. W. Graves a Candidate.

The member of the bar of Bates county, the home of Judge W. W. Graves, who is a candidate for re-nomination to the supreme bench, have issued an address to the members of the bar of the state and in speaking of the Judge, say: "During the six years Judge Graves was judge of this circuit, his decisions were so characterized by absolute fairness, fearlessness and signal ability that when he left the Bench it was with the unfeigned and profound regret of every lawyer in our circuit. The prediction we made when he went to the Supreme Bench that the lawyers of the state would find him as we knew him to be, a profound and learned lawyer and fearless, just and upright Judge, has, we think, been verified by all who have followed his course, and read his opinions. In our judgment his nomination would mean the maintenance of the high standard of our Supreme Court, in which every lawyer who loves his profession is so vitally interested. He has served but a short time, filling out a vacancy, and we ask brothers over the State to watch his interests in the August primary to the end that he may be nominated for a full term. In supporting Judge Graves you will be giving your aid not only to an able, pure and conscientious Judge, but to an honorable and upright gentleman whose private life and public acts will be vouched for by every man who knows him."

Vote for Thos. F. Lane for Senator.

Thanks It Saved His Life.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. I have found it a reliable remedy for throat and lung complaints, and would not be without a bottle than I would be without food." For nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies, as a preventive of pneumonia, and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. Sold under guarantee at Johnson's Pharmacy. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
